

ROBERT W. JONES, MBA, Ph. D.
CURRICULUM VITAE

Experience

Lecturer in Economics at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute

Founder of Valuation Resource Group, LLC, East Greenbush, New York

Manager & Senior Valuation Analyst with the regional Certified Public Accounting firm of Bollam, Sheedy, Torani & Co. LLP, Albany, New York, 1995 – 2000

Associate at investment banking firm specializing in mergers and acquisitions, 1993 - 1995

Research Associate at the Federal Reserve Board of Governors, 1989 - 1992

Associations

Member of the National Association of Forensic Economics

Member Beta Gamma Sigma, National Business Honor Society

Education

Ph.D., Ecological Economics – Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, New York

Masters of Business Administration, Finance - William E. Simon Graduate School of Business Administration, Rochester, New York

Bachelor of Arts, Mathematical Economics - Pomona College, Claremont, California

Recent Publications & Presentations

The Inequity of Keane v. Keane: A Call for Corrective Action, Family Law Review, Spring/Summer 2016, New York State Bar Association.

Enhanced Earnings Issues in Divorce Proceedings, Onondaga County Bar Association, June 2015

Evaluating Settlement Offers, Collaborative Divorce Association of the Capital District, January 2015.

Business Valuation, NYS Council on Divorce Mediation Annual Conference, May 2014.

Research Interests

Valuation of financial assets

Forensic economics

Law & Economics

Copyright law

Courses Taught

Intermediate Microeconomic Theory

Money and Banking

The Economics of Financial Markets and Institutions

Law and Economics

Principles of Economics